

Autumn 1 – If you go down to the woods today...

Sparkly Starts are inspired by these texts:

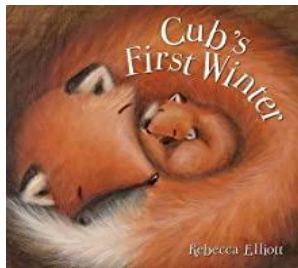

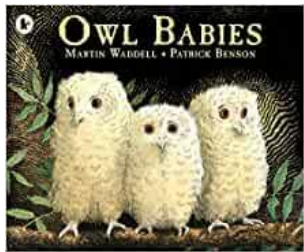

This half term story voting is introduced. Each day children will have a choice of two books and they vote for the one they would like to hear read to them at the end of the day. Stories are linked to the story/ author of the week, topic or the children's interests. Teachers discuss the title, whether it is fiction, non-fiction or a poem and talk about the front cover/the blurb.

Books that all children will hear, that support our topic:

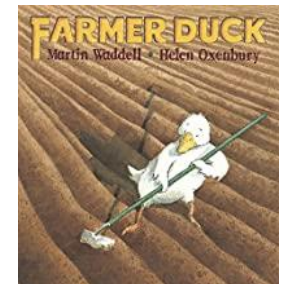

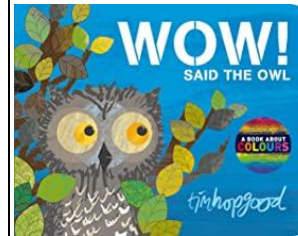

Autumn 2 – A journey into Winter

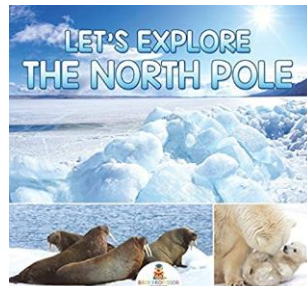

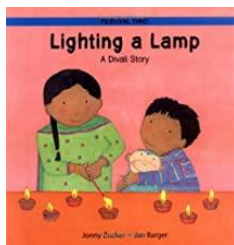

Sparkly Starts are inspired by these texts:

Books that all children will hear, that support our topic:

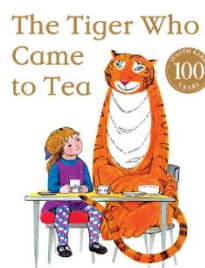

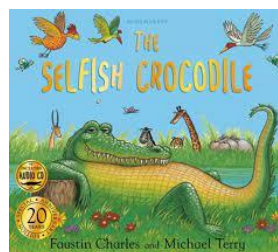

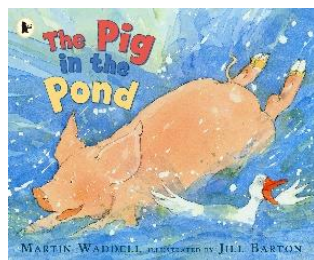

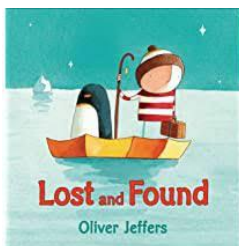

Non-fiction Texts:

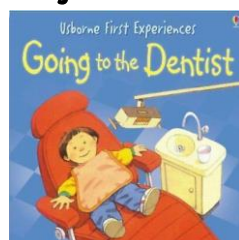

End of the day voting books will include books of a similar theme, books by the authors whose books we are reading e.g. Nick Butterworth, Rebecca Elliott (local authors)

Spring 1 – Animal Antics

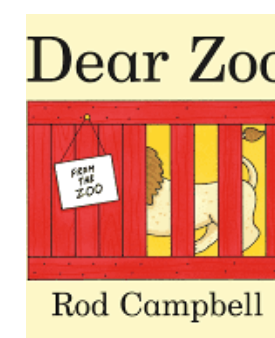

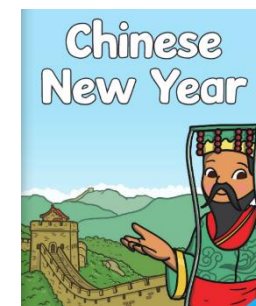

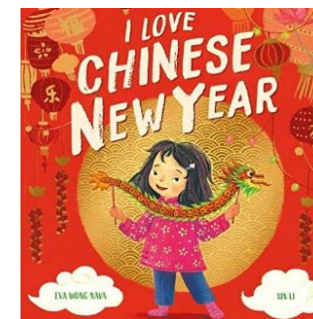

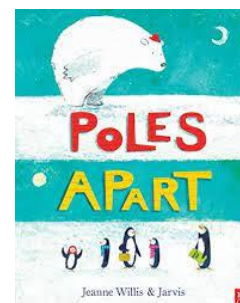

Sparkly Starts are inspired by these texts:

Non-fiction Texts

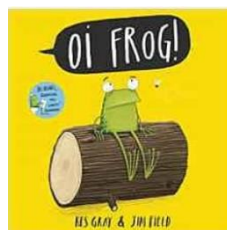

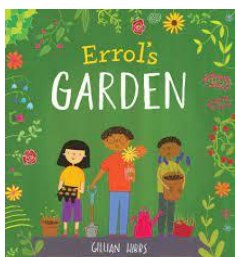

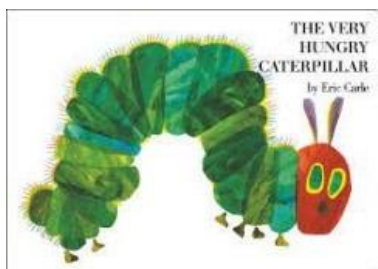

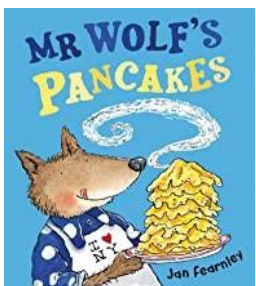

Books that all children will hear, that support our topic:

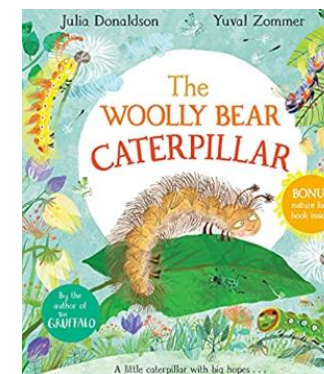

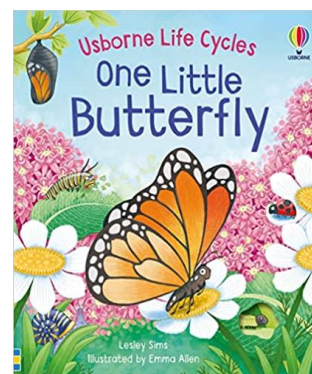

End of the day voting books will include books of a similar theme, books by the authors whose books we are reading.

Spring 2 – Come Outside

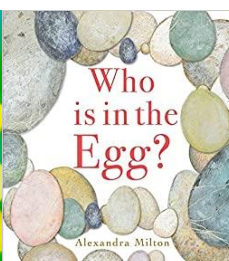

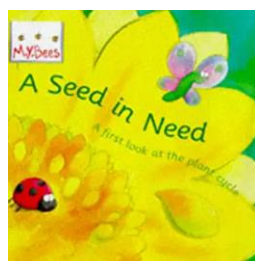

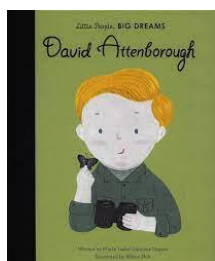

Sparkly Starts are inspired by these texts:

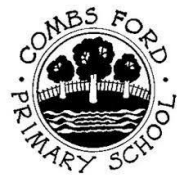

Books that all children will hear, that support our topic:

Non-fiction Texts

End of the day voting books will include books of a similar theme, books by the authors whose books we are reading.

EYFS Reading Web 2022-2023